COPLE HIGH SCHOOL

DEDICATION

As an expression of respect and gratitude we dedicate this our first edition of "THE TRAVELLER" to our principal, Jesse L. Luthy, whose unfailing leadership, and sympathetic understanding have inspired so many of us along the difficult pathway of life. His devotion to the futherance of education has done much to instill in us those high ideals of culture and wisdom.

CLASS HISTORY

" History is the essence of innumerable biographies. " In these words, long years ago, Thomas Carlyle bespoke a truth that will hold til the end of time. Therein lies the story of our class - the Class of 49 - as it draws near the close of the high school chapter of life. What we have done, what we have said, and how we have re-acted to ever changing situations from day to day - these things are our history.

Another quotation dating back many centuries, " History repeats itself, " is peculiarly applicable to us. In the fall of 1945 a class of eighteen freshmen entered high school, and, though there have been many departures on the way, we are finishing our senior year with the same number we had four years ago. Of the orginial eighteen we still have eleven with us. They are: Ola Rae Thrift, Barbara Withers, Ethel Davis, Thelma Saunders, June Moss, Bill Atwill, Leon Hundley, Bob Suthard, Otho Sydnor, Edwin Trader and Russell Wright. Those who dropped out were: Joan Dungan, Frances Evans, Lillian Evans, Grace Hundley, Elizabeth Morris, John Lewis, and George Reed. Joining us along the way have been Adeline Allen, Carolyn Dawson, Lulu Richards, Earl Hayes, and Tom Arnest. Besides these are: Jean Bronson who came from Kew Forest High School, New York, and Helen Fones from Wilmington High School, Delaware.

We entered high school under Mr. Luthy as principal, and have been fortunate to have him guiding us through our entire four years. In going through high school everyone contributes something to the total program, some gain public recognition, others are the unsung hero who help in those countless little things that mean so much. Let us recall a few events. During the first year many of us took part in the Glee Club directed by Mrs. Chick. By our sophomore year we had matured enough for the coaches of the various sports to begin thinking of us as possible members of their teams. Some of our girls were active on the softball teams which at the end of two years had won 15 out of 17 games played. Mrs. Norris was the coach. That same year, under the guidance of Mr. Hudson, the boys became increasingly interested in touch football and the next fall, undefeated, were declared champions of the Northern Neck. A trophy attesting to this fact stands in our library today. This period of victory carried over to the next spring when the baseball team showed improvement. There resulted increased community interest in sports and the P.T.A. sponsored the purchase of new uniforms for both boys' and girls' teams.

There are many and varied things which give us satisfaction as we look back: In public speaking Ola Rae and Bill did some outstanding work, while Jean and Helen showed evidence of considerable talent in that field. On January 19th., 1948 Ola Rae, Barbara, Ethel, Thelma, and June with others, presented a minuet in costume at Stratford, a record of which we have in color film. This year some of our girls took part in the production of a one-act play which was well received in Fredericksburg. The credit for these accomplishments is due Mrs. Ryerson. Again, during our high school days, Otho, through his work in the 4-H Club, was awarded a trip to Chicago. We cannot close with out mentioning the three highlights of our fourth year, one, the Senior Play, "The Darling Brats" directed by Mrs. Norris, another, the annual, produced under the guidance of Miss Bouldin, and, our Junior-Senior Banquet, sponsored by Mrs. Hudson.

This June there will be another rush of '49 --- not just for gold as a century ago - but for living good, honorable lives that will make worthy the biographies to be written of our years yet unborn.

Leon Hundley

CLASS PROPHECY

To each of us, we must confess,
There comes a moment sure,
When we do wonder and want to know
What the future holds in store.

If this time has come to you,
I'll end your curiosity,
For suddenly there comes to me
A vision of futurity.
I see:

A crystal ball, a pack of cards,
Leaves from a cup of tea,
I need not these but only use
My gift of prophecy.

Attention please, a moment now,
I want you one and all to hear
If not the whole, at least in part
The secrets of to-morrow year.

Adeline Allen has completed her secretarial course and now enjoys running her employer's office and life.

Tom Arnest is a traveling salesman. What could be better for one who loved to sit around and "shoot the breeze?"

Bill Atwill has become a lawyer, and is still kicking up a lot of fuss fighting for the last word.

Jean Bronson has finished her home economics course and is busy applying it, but I can't recognize the man.

Ethel Davis is married and grandfather "Vernon" is following the girls' softball games again, watching "Little Ethel" star, as did her ma.

Carolyn Dawson is happily married but she and Curtis have been so busy running around in fords that they have not settled down to having a family.

Helen Fones is dividing her time between teaching her beloved history and keeping house for her beloved husband.

Earl Hayes is still dazed. He was given to understand that everything was fine, but for years now, he has been singing," Where, Oh, Where Has My Little Jean Gone?"

Leon Hundley put that good mind of his to work. He went to Washington, became interested in city government, and is now one of the important city officials.

June Moss has realized her dream of becoming a home economics teacher.

Thelma Saunders now owns half interest in Mrs. Beatley's store and is putting into good use her year at business school.

Bob Suthard found Hague too dull for him and has turned to a business career in the state of Florida.

Lula Richards is tired of staying home every Sunday by herself while her husband delivers milk.

Otho Sydnor is still the "man about Hague." He says he is farming, but one may see him at the local store most anytime.

Ola Rae Thrift has completed her business course, secured a good job, married, and is still working. One may see her in Callao now and then visiting her old haunts.

Edwin Trader has made a success in business, and in love. He hooked a cute wife with the same techniques he used in "The Darling Brats."

Barbara Withers has a good secretarial job in the F.B.I. office, in Washington. No husband yet, but there is a man in whom she is very interested.

Russell Wright enjoyed his part in "The Darling Brats" so much that he moved west, as near Hollywood as possible.

My forecast given, I now retire
My powers melt away,
Just bear in mind that I am but
A prophet for a day.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

Although you are graduates, you can do a great service for the rest of us, if you never cease to be students ------ looking for opportunities and ways to cherish the American system of free enterprise and to improve the American way of life. You can be thankful for free schools in a country where you are free to worship and work and think and talk as you please. This is your heritage from the people who built America.

THE FUTURE is pretty largely in your hands --you must be vigilant and active to combat evils of socialism, government domination of private industry, and all the "isms" that destroy democracy. We depend upon you to do a good job.

GOOD LUCK!
